Hey Frank, thanks for stepping in!

We received the new keys today. They all remind me of the shops closest to their respective exits. Figure it out: One looks like THE dart from Herbert's commercial. One looks like the initials in my favorite B & K section. Scary right? One looks like the fridge magnet I was given when I paid $4.05. And one looks like today's mood ring... you get it?

Good luck figuring it out.

Will keep you busy during night shift. Haha!
